Dear parents/carers,

What a fantastic week we have had. The highlight of the week was Little Gems and Opal Class Nativity. The children were incredible. They were so confident in saying all of their lines and the songs were sung so beautifully. They were fantastic in showing our school values of perseverance and courage. The songs were ringing out down the corridor and is still in our minds and heart now. We are so proud of each and every one of you.

Little Gems have made some beautiful sparkly star Christmas ornaments from salt dough this week. They have been working really hard on their phonics and reading. Great work.

Opal class have made some incredible Christmas candle holders. They used natural materials such a moss and pine cones, to create a beautiful centre piece. Wow!

Jade class have made some beautiful decorations from salt dough and used cutters to shape them. I was blown away by their incredible use of sign language to sing Away in a Manger. Wow!

Moonstone class enjoyed finishing their science topic about light this week. We investigated how to make white light from colour wheels and used prisms to create rainbows spectrums. They have also created some beautiful Christmas cards, using chalk pastels of the northern lights.

Tuesday is our Carols by Candle light service in the hall at 2pm. Children in their smart school uniform please. We will be so tiring in too hall with parents and careers in the main hall this year, to try and create more space.

Wednesday next week is our Christmas dinner. The children are welcome to wear a Christmas jumper on top of their school uniform.

Thursday is non uniform day , please bring in £1. The children can wear their Christmas party clothes, ready for their class parties in the afternoon. Please can the children bring in some food to share.

Thank you - We would like to extend an incredibly special thank you to Jonah's nanny for her incredible generosity and creativity. She lovingly hand-knitted a complete set of nativity characters for Little Gems, they are absolutely wonderful. The children have been absolutely delighted with them, and they will be a cherished part of Little Gems Christmas celebrations for many years to come.
