We are looking for a happy, conscientious and motivated person to supervise our After School Care Club, which is a well-established club run for children on the school roll aged 4 – 11 years. We are open to part-time options and can offer free personal child care.

Responsibilities include: providing high quality, creative play and care for the children in the club, serving snacks, communicating with parents and carers, setting up and storage of the equipment. Tidying away equipment and wiping down the tables at the end of session.

Qualifications: Formal childcare qualifications are not essential but desirable.

The successful candidate must be able to work as part of a team. Training would be available through a range of relevant courses.

Visits are warmly encouraged. Please contact the school office on 01865 735643 or email at office.3854@wootton-abingdon.oxon.sch.uk

Please complete an application form via Oxfordshire County Council website.

We are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and expect all staff to share this commitment. Our preferred candidate will be required to undertake a DBS check.
